[illegible]

[illegible] Lincoln, [illegible]

[illegible] of [illegible], is dead.

In the House of Representatives on Monday, Vallandigham offered a resolution looking to peace, which lies over.

[From our Evening Edition of yesterday.]

LATE AND IMPORTANT FROM THE NORTH —SEWARD, SON AND CHASE RESIGNED.

RICHMOND, Dec. 23.

Philadelphia Inquirer received fully confirms the resignation of Seward and [illegible] yesterday. Washington correspondent says since the late disaster at Fredericksburg the feeling has grown [illegible] that there must be a change in the Cabinet and policy before the war can be prosecuted further. Seward and his son still remain at their [illegible] of [illegible].

[illegible] Scotia arrived at New York with Liverpool dates to sixth inst., nothing new on American Affairs. Paris Moniteur in a [illegible] official form alluded to presence of French squadron at New Orleans, which is represented to have greatly elated the disaffected population. Cotton famine distress in France increasing in severity. [illegible] attention of American [illegible]. Liverpool cotton market closed [illegible]. Uplands 22 to 24. James Sheridan Knowles is dead.

Richmond Enquirer has Northern dates [illegible].—Herald says Seward and Chase have certainly resigned. Seward will not remain if Halleck and Stanton are retained, and Chase will not remain if Seward quits. Fremont is mentioned as radical candidate for Commander-in-Chief and McClellan as the Conservative. Herald says Sunday was gloomiest day at Washington known in history, and thinks if Fremont is appointed or Stanton retained the newly elected Governors of six Great States will withdraw their troops and demand change of policy.

A dispatch from Washington, Sunday at midnight says the President has announced that he is the proper judge of the conduct of his cabinet and will not be influenced by the dictation of Senators. Burnside was in Washington Sunday. 'Twas telegraphed from Burnside's Headquarters, 21st inst., that his staff knew nothing of his resignation.

Gold rose one per cent. in New York when Seward's resignation reached there.

FORREST ROUTS THE YANKEES.

CHATTANOOGA, Dec. 23.

A special dispatch to the Rebel, from Tuscumbia, Dec. 22nd says: A gentleman here to-day with his brother's corpse, killed in the fight at Lexington, Tenn., says Gen. Forrest attacked and routed the Federals there on the 18th, capturing battery, horses and all, and four hundred prisoners, five hundred carbines, two hundred horses, several hundred saddles and considerable commissary stores. Citizens report the enemy five thousand strong, raw recruits. Our loss very trifling. A man here says the Yankees had returned from Okolona.

UNDERWOOD, THE SPY.

RICHMOND, Dec. 23.

John C. Underwood, the spy captured by Hampton, was the first man to raise the Black Republican flag on Virginia soil.

PRYOR AFTER THE YANKEES.

PETERSBURG, Dec. 22.

On Monday Gen. Pryor with a small detachment attacked the abolition forces, several hundred strong stationed at Isle of Wight C. H., to protect an election of bogus representatives to the Abolition Congress. At first charge Gen. Dix's protegés fled in great confusion and were completely routed. They were chased ten miles, full speed. Our loss trifling. Gen. Pryor and his men afterwards visited Smithfield.

ALL QUIET AT FREDERICKSBURG.

RICHMOND, Dec. 23.

Passengers by the evening train report that there is no change in the situation of affairs at Fredericksburg.

IMPORTANT [illegible] Louisville [illegible] the Governor of Michigan has issued a proclamation [illegible] he will recall all the troops from that State.

[illegible]

[illegible] the Governor for State [illegible]

[illegible]

We commend [illegible] by the Assembly to provide this force, and [illegible] that if they refuse to do it a betrayed and ruined people will hold them responsible.

THE SENATORIAL ELECTION.

An election was held yesterday in this county for Senator to fill the seat of Col. [illegible], resigned. [illegible] of the vote from seventeen precincts which foot up as follows: W. D. Jones [illegible]; W. H. Pugh [illegible]; Capt. Rand [illegible], and 2 scattering. Messrs Jones and Pugh were the only gentlemen running. Capt. Rand was not a candidate.—The vote will be very small throughout the county, but there can be no doubt as to the election of Mr. Jones.

CHRISTMAS.

The day passed as usual with the exception of [illegible]ing, which, owing to the blockade, was rather limited. Confectionaries were scarce, though groceries seemed to be abundant.

The city churches were generally well attended, and the day was clear, mild and pleasant. Altogether we were satisfied with it and hope everybody else was.

FROM RICHMOND.

The Richmond papers of yesterday contain [illegible] further than we have received by telegraph. The [illegible] has the following particulars of Gen. Hampton's haul upon the Yankees:

On Saturday morning last a detachment of the cavalry of Gen. Wade Hampton, under the command of the General in person, made a rich haul on a Yankee train in the neighborhood of Dumfries. They captured [illegible] wagons, twenty seven in number, laden with the choicest articles for the gay Christmas season. Many of the articles captured were labelled "Christmas presents for Gen. Burnside," [illegible] including everything calculated to elevate the [illegible] of the Yankee [illegible]. Besides these there was a good supply of sutler's stores, [illegible] boots and shoes, gloves, [illegible] and many other articles necessary for the comfort of [illegible] during the cold season.

In addition, one hundred and seventy Yankees who were guarding the train were made prisoners, and arrived in this city yesterday. They also captured the notorious John C. Underwood who has been acting as a pilot for the Yankees since the war commenced in the counties of Fauquier, Prince William, and others on the Potomac border. When discovered he was closely concealed in a lady's wardrobe with the door locked. The proprietress of the wardrobe was very indignant at the soldiers who broke open the door and dragged Underwood from his concealment.

CONSCRIPTION IN IREDELL.—The Iredell Express says: The [illegible] Regiment, mustered in this place to enroll conscripts on Saturday last. 274 names were enrolled between the ages of 18 and 40, and perhaps 200 of the number will enter the service. The larger portion of all the conscripts are cultivators of the soil, and the withdrawal of so much labor from the crops, must be seriously felt, and particularly will be calculated to distress the families of many of the conscripts, as but a small number of them own slaves. Whatever can, should be done to supply the deficiency of white labor by substituting black. The negroes should be brought from the [illegible] portions of the State and distributed among the farmers of the West, to help raise crops; indeed this should have been done long since. At present, the slaves of unfortunate refugees, are consumers, not producers, and they will rapidly diminish the supplies of provisions on hand, that will be needed to feed the soldiers and their families next summer. We think that the Legislature ought to take some action in the matter. Without an adequate supply of food, our cause will be lost, and our gallant army [illegible].

KILLED.—It is stated that Wm. H. Polk, of Maury county, Tenn., brother of the late President Polk, was killed in Nashville a few days ago in a row. His remains have been sent to Columbia for interment. The particulars of the killing have not reached us.

COMMANDER MAURY.—The Chattanooga Rebel says:—"Capt. M. F. Maury has gone abroad, not upon a diplomatic mission, but to take command of an iron-clad cruiser. The South will hear of his exploits before long. He will doubtless add several practical chapters to his geography of the sea." We doubt the correctness of the Rebel's statement.

DONATIONS FOR THE SOLDIERS.—Many persons in the State are ready to contribute what they can spare in clothing, shoes, blankets, &c., for the benefit of the soldiers of North Carolina, provided they can be made certain that the articles sent will reach their destination. We have taken some pains to ascertain how this can be done, and the following is the result of our inquiries. These arrangements may be relied upon:

1. Governor Vance has ordered the Captain of every militia district in the State to call upon each family in their several districts, to purchase or collect what they may be willing to give to the North Carolina soldiers, blankets, jeans, linseys, leather, shoes, socks, carpets and clothes ready made, to be delivered by the Colonel of the regiment to the Quartermaster in Raleigh, to be forwarded by him to the proper regiment or company.

2. Besides this, the people of one or more Captain's districts, if their donations are sufficiently large to justify it, may select a gentleman whom they may prefer to carry on their donations to the regiment or company, and the State will furnish the transportation and pay the necessary expenses of the agent.

3. All articles donated, should be carefully put up in packages, bags, boxes or barrels, and they should be legibly directed to the soldier or company for whom they are intended, naming the company and regiment, and if possible the brigade.

4. Persons who wish to send articles to any soldier or company, but who do not find it convenient to deliver it to the Captain of their district, or to a special Agent, by directing it carefully as above, may deliver it to the nearest Railroad Agent, directed to the care of Captain C. W. Garrett, Quartermaster at Raleigh, N. C., and it will be promptly forwarded.

5. All articles intended for sick or wounded soldiers in the hospitals, must be carefully directed, and sent to the care of Surgeon General Warren, Raleigh, N. C.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

RUNAWAY FROM THE UNDERSIGNED, ON THE 25th December, a negro boy named ANDERSON, about twenty-five years old, perfectly black—heavy set, and weighs from 175 to 180 pounds when he left.—He has been hand-cuffed. Said boy is supposed to have been raised by Mr. Lewis, of Sampson county, N. C.—When he left he had on a blue jacket and white pants, very ragged; has good teeth and speaks freely. I bought him of Mr. L. P. Robinson, of Augusta, Ga., on the 15th instant, and was on my way to Richmond, Va., and had to lay over in Raleigh on account of not being able to get passage. I was camped by the side of the Railroad track. He left about dark.

I will pay the above reward to any person who will deliver said boy to any jail for safe-keeping so that I can get him. Any information will be thankfully received.

Executive Department North Carolina,
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
RALEIGH, Nov. 27, 1862.

General Orders,
No. 13.

I. THE PRESIDENT OF THE CONFEDERATE States having deemed it necessary to call into service, under the provisions of the recent act of Congress, all persons liable to military duty between the ages of 18 and 40 years, the Commanding Officers of the Militia will call out their respective Regiments and enroll and conduct to the Camp of Instruction all persons liable to military duty under this law, at such times as Colonel Peter Mallett, Chief Enrolling Officer for the State, may direct.

II. The enemy are pressing upon us in great numbers, with the intention to overwhelm us by a winter campaign. Our danger now comes from the South side of James river, and as the scene of war approaches nearer to our borders, it becomes North Carolinians to rush even more promptly than before to the defence of our own territory. If we can drive him back once more, as we have so often done, there is every reason to hope that his strength will be effectually broken. The various officers entrusted with the execution of this order are again commanded to use all diligence in arresting deserters and absentees without leave from the army, and all good citizens who prize liberty and independence, are earnestly invoked to assist in hurrying off all such to their regiments. The brave and patriotic soldier will not over-stay his furlough unless providentially hindered. The coward alone will skulk (at home) whilst his braver comrades endure the heat and burthen of the fight.
